Reds

Heavyweight Cabernet Sauvignon $27

These blackberry and currant aromas strike swiftly, followed by a combination of rich fruit flavors

Black Oak Merlot $19

Garnet red in color, deep and rich looking. The wine is warm and layered with cocoa and ripe blueberry aromas

Brownstone Pinot Noir $21

Subtle raspberry and black cherry flavors, soft tannins and very smooth finish

Red Haus Zinfandel $27

Ripe characters of blueberry and raspberry jam yet uniquely soft with a light anise-spice note

Villa Sorono Chianti $22

A fruity and aromatic ruby-red wine from central Tuscany with fruit forward nuances of violet and cherry

MV 1907 Malbec $31

Malbec 1907 selection, is the result of grapes taken from an old vineyard planted in 1907, from which comes the name of the wine. Deep purple in color with aromas of berries, notes of graphite, black cherry, and spice. Great concentration, firm tannins, fresh acidity, and a long finish

Confidential Reserva $30

Very aromatic with notes of ripe, wild berry fruits, a fruit driven palate and full-bodied wine with some oak notes and an agreeable pronounce acidity

Luiz Barichello Torraia $93

Torraia is a triumph of Malbec: a wine with amazing full-body and structure. Lively, passionate, it is exalted by the Chianti's friendly weather that makes the wine smooth and sensual. On the palate, it's an explosion of black fruits, ripe cherry and plum. The aging in oak barrels gift the wine with a spicy and balsamic touch
